I was thrown from my horse 6 or 7 years ago, and suffered a severe wound of the side, which was aggravated by disordered kidneys. Bleven months ago I was attacked with preumonia and bladder disease deposits of brick dust and albu-men being discernable by the naked eye. I was confined to the house for six months, and was unable to cross the floor without assistance. My physician did me no good. Having read in my religious weeklies of the wonderful cures by your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and being advised to use it by Captain Graham, I did so and am once more able to walk the streets. Digging for Liberty.

The Stockton, Cal., Herald reports the fellowing rather remarkable case of jail brooking : Johnny Saccome, rice months : go, while ourfixed in a cell at Folsom, planned his escape. His cell floor was made of granite blocks held acgether with coment. By removing the comens between (w) thoks and prospecting with wire, he discovered a bollow below him, and he decided to are rivin its extent. From the work shop he smuggled a cold chist and a pices of hard wood, which he scerated in his cell. The gravice block be deded to out in two, and he cil it by striking his chiest every ime a door opened or s'ammed. I was a difficult jib, and required a graat deal of time which was taken only at night, as he worked cu side during the day. The block was rine icches in thickness, and when he succeeded in removing half of it he propped the other helf up with a sick of timber, and covered the whole with a piece of wood out to fit exactly. He plastered the wood over with coment, which he white washed, making is look like the grat-

When he made an examination of the hollow space below he found that, by cutting through scope and coment three and a baif test thick. he could reach a sewer, which had been cocstructed and abandon d before the completion of the bailet g. In order to a vaid detection by he guards so they made their regular rounds, he burg some of his clothes upon the wall, and the rest he made into a cummy, which he tucked nicely under the blankets. Naked, te Worked night offer pight, until he had contrad the opinion of the stone sewer. The holes he cut were so 'ma'l that he had to grease them so is to allow his body to slip thr. u. b. After passing through the sewer some fifty-two feet be med with an obstruction in the shape of stone and o ment ten tees in thickness, which and ein filled in when the sewer was abandoned This be removed slowly piece by pro-c. exrey ing it back like a equired into the hollow space underseath his cell. He is or with another ob struction when this was removed. It was a aracite block wound a half feet thick. When ne made his w y through this be ran a tunnel into the ground eight feet long, just wide enong to admit his bidy, and then started an incline upward, which, after running four feet brough bim into an unused closet, into a small room with so ss; hikam flor, and with a window barred with chilled iron bars.

EXTRAVAGENT WIVES AND MEAN HUS-BANES - One of the poculiarities of the present social system is that relating to the "money question' between husbands and wives. Although with the nuptial oath the husband does with all his worldly goods the wife endow, too often the memory of the obligation dies with the word of promise on the lips. When a mantakes a woman to be his wife he assumes the broadest obligation to provide for her confort and sup port. A man of wealth is bound to enable a women to sustein herself creditably in the circle in which they move; the poor man to administer to the comfort of his fam ly is far as within his means. The incorriderate and reckless waste of money by some wom in provided with unstinted means, and the endeavor of others whose means are limited to a pretenticus display are equally to be condemned. There are some man who do not realiz , or, at any rate, seem to lorget, that their wives have any rights in money matters which they are bound to respect. A wife to this sort of a hu-band is much the same is a servant. Does she require money for family necessities, she must reader account for the expenditure of every cent. If shopping is to be done, she mugo to him for money to purch see even a spool of thread or to pay carfare Itiai bumiliating to a sensitive women, yet such instances come uncer observation every d v
